

Outpatient Clinician - Here For You Project

The Outpatient Clinician is an exciting New position at Portage Path Behavioral Health as a result of a recently awarded grant. The "Here for You" project will strengthen our community's ability to provide care for indigent, low and moderate-income residents, minorities, and vulnerable populations who are experiencing mental illness and addiction. This position is a full-time temporary position expected to last 2 years from the date of hire, with a strong likelihood of continuation for a candidate with exemplary performance. This project will look to establish, strengthen and sustain referral pathways and new community locations to gain and retain minority and disadvantaged clients so that they can receive high-quality patient-centered outpatient services, trauma-informed screening, assessment, diagnosis and patient-centered treatment services.

The Outpatient Clinician will report directly to the Here for You Project Director, and functions in a peer relationship with other clinical staff members. The Outpatient Clinician may seek out assistance from any of the foregoing staff members regarding unique needs presented by a client, and will respond to requests for assistance from peers and other staff. In return, any staff member may supply information and assistance to the Outpatient Clinician.
